LANIVET METHODIST CHURCH

Lanivet Parish Church

PLEASE NOTE: LANIVET PARISH CHURCH IS NOW A FESTIVAL CHURCH, AND IS STILL OPEN DAILY FOR PRIVATE REFLECTION AND CAN HOST WEDDINGS, BAPTISMS AND FUNERALS

The new Bishop of Truro, David Williams, will be welcomed to his cathedral in Truro on 17th May. It will be a grand affair, resplendent with well wishers from all sections of Cornish life. The carefully choreographed service confirms his responsibilities for the life of this diocese and enshrines his role as a servant of its people. He will spend hours shaking people's hands after the service and chatting with all sorts.

Cornwall has the most amazing Christian history, from the arrival of St. Piran, St. Guron and St. Petroc in the 6th Century. Some people argue it has the longest undisrupted Christian tradition in the British Isles. The Saxon invasions did not reach this far so monasteries were able to continue serving and teaching their people without being cast out from their dwellings and lands. Our villages and towns still have signs of this ancient heritage. We continue to honour this Celtic faith in our more recent Medieval buildings.

Bishop David is all too aware of this great tradition. It is his role to preserve and continue it. In particular he has to articulate the faith of our ancestors in this generation, speaking in contemporary and relevant terms about the gospel of Christ in today's world. He will want to listen before he says too much. That is always the first job of a new spiritual leader. Unless he understands the lives of the people he lives amongst he is likely to misread what is happening and utter words that don't quite fit. We should give him time and await his response to what he observes and hears. Bishop David's first visit to the Bodmin Team Ministry was on the day his appointment was announced by Downing Street. He met up with Revd Elaine Munday at one of her community activities and then went to say Evensong at St. Meubred's, Cardinham. He will be presiding at a team service in St. Petroc's on the 21st September.

I am sure he will be a frequent visitor to our part of Cornwall. I will alert you to those times when he will be around in the hope you might like to meet him and offer him your wisdom on the situations we face around us. In the meantime, he has assured me of his support for our various ventures and looks forward to sharing in the life of our churches.

GARDEN JOTTINGS

The weather has been quite changeable these past few months and Easter has already come and gone. I usually mention the weather in my jottings and this month is certainly no exception. Well, it may come as no surprise to learn that Cornwall was the wettest county in the UK for the entire month of April. It received 169% above the monthly average. In doing so it also suffered the highest recorded rain in a day – namely 33.22 mm. It was also recorded to be the warmest April in the UK for the month. Our farmers have suffered and so have our gardens apart from the fact that hard frosts were kept at bay. Currently blossom appears to be everywhere. The early spring flowers have been and gone; the bluebells have given their heart. If you love them as I do then when the seed pod is ripe, and the pods dry out sprinkle them around and you will soon expand your display of these lovely spring flowers. I have a lovely display in the garden of fantastic acers ranging in colour from bright red, yellow and light green. Do consider these varieties for wonderful colour in your garden, they are so easy to maintain and require little maintenance. June is certainly the month for planting up your hanging baskets, if you're planning on DIY then purchase sturdy, vibrant plants with plenty of colour including evergreens. Use a good compost that is pre-mixed for hanging baskets. These tend to help the compost not dry out so quick given our warmer summers. Seek advice via 'YouTube' for tips on the subject. Of course, you can always go to one of our local garden centres that make them to order to fulfil your requirements. As we have been very short of water lately everything requires a good watering, including currently my bluebells! Obviously, anything in pots should regularly require a good soaking in these dry long spells. Meanwhile the year marches on, please don't forget to maintain a regime of deadheading your summer bedding. This will ensure continuous flowering throughout the summer.

It just leaves me to wish you all a lovely summer break and Happy Gardening

BEN MAGUIRE - YOUR LOCAL MP

Hello, Lanivet! I hope you've all been enjoying the sun these last few weeks, making the most of the wonderful weather we've been treated to. At the start of this month (May) we had our Cornwall Council elections, and I'm very pleased to say that Chris Batters was re-elected to serve as Councillor for your village and its surrounding areas. And on the note of local elections, I also just wanted to say a huge 'thank you'. To all the volunteers, door-knockers, and supporters in Lanivet, and to those who have kindly given their vote to their local Liberal Democrat champion, Chris. We couldn't have fought such a brilliant campaign both in Lanivet and across North Cornwall without you, and I personally know that Chris will work very hard to be the champion you all expect and deserve. I do believe he'll be contributing regularly to this newsletter too, so make sure to keep an eye out for his name to learn what he has been working on.

Alongside our campaigning these last few weeks, I've been out and about on so many visits across our constituency (timed well with a beautiful period of wonderful sunshine!). I was privileged to be invited to celebrate Wadebridge Foodbank's official reception of the King's Award, in recognition of the vital services they provide to the town and its surrounding areas. To celebrate, I officially submitted an Early Day Motion (EDM) with the House of Commons, celebrating their achievement and congratulating all volunteers for the selfless and incredibly important work they do. It was a wonderful evening, and it was lovely to meet so many of their volunteers and talk about some of the challenges the Foodbank is facing. Thanks again to the entire team for their hospitality, and for inviting me along to share the evening with them.

I was also very pleased to visit my old primary school, St. Mary's, over in Bodmin. Another ex-pupil of the school, Dan Rogerson (who served as North Cornwall's MP between 2005-2015) joined me on the visit, where we met staff and pupils while reminiscing about our school days there. It was a particular pleasure to meet Sue Stokes who has been the school's head chef for almost 45 years and is retiring this year. I can personally attest to her excellent cooking but as she now hangs up her spatula I wish her a very enjoyable retirement.

It was a privilege to visit Padstow's Obby Oss festival and join in with the May Day celebrations at the start of the month, where I accompanied the Town Mayor James O'Keefe and spoke to so many locals. It's such a brilliant reminder of deep-rooted Cornish tradition being celebrated to this day, and it certainly seemed that everyone who spent time out in the streets thoroughly enjoyed themselves!

We had some other excellent news recently, because after our long campaign, Lloyds Bank will now be accepting cheques to be cashed into accounts via the Post Office. In the face of so many local bank closures here in North Cornwall, this serves as temporary respite for those who were relying on their nearby vital services and were unable to use their Lloyds mobile phone app - as they can now instead use their nearest Post Office to cash cheques directly into their Lloyds account.

I know the Banking Hub in Bodmin is used a lot by people in Lanivet and lots of other surrounding areas - so rest assured that I will continue fighting for full Banking Hubs, like the ones that have already been secured for some areas, so that the full range of essential banking services can be accessed face-to-face for those who need it.

That's all for now - so until next month, enjoy the sun, and please do reach out with any questions, queries, issues, or casework I might be able to help with. As your MP, I was elected to serve, and that is exactly what I intend to do.

Ben Maguire

A VERY NAIVE POEM

Age has caught up with me,
I am now seventy eight.
The only thing I'm good at,
Is putting on weight.
My journey's not over,
I'm just having a turn.
The people around me,
Are my main concern.
I try each day to make a new Friend,
If I stopped being kind,
That would be the end.
My day gets better,
The more people I see.
Truly there is nowhere on Earth,
That I would rather be.

COUNCILLOR CHRIS BATTERS

Well hello again to the residents of the Lanivet parish.

Can I say how thrilled I am to have been re-elected as your Cornwall Councillor for the next four years and I again promise you my full commitment towards serving you as I did in my previous eight years. I'll be there for you 24/7.

As it's only been a few days I don't really have anything to report in this edition, so I'm hoping you might allow me to indulge myself in a little nostalgia and thanks to yourselves. Your village means so much to me.

I have known Lanivet village from a very early age as the 'fish & chip' stop for the Saltash United football team coach returning from a west Cornwall match. As the men visited the Lanivet Inn, the Mums bought the fish & chips, and the youngsters raced up the road to the 'spooky' looking St Benets Abbey and the lovely coloured stones cemented in the gate posts, long since disappeared. Once the fish & chips were bought and the men finished their pints it was back on the coach to continue the journey eating the fish & chips. Such great days! I remember returning on two occasions to the village in the 1960's on a Bellringing outing from my Saltash Church as a 17 year old, ringing a round or two in the beautiful Lanivet tower. Later I got to know Lanivet even better when in the 1970's I was posted to Bodmin as a Police Officer and got to know the 'famous' and much loved local Policeman, Keith Hatcher. But never did I think Lanivet would play such a big role in my life.

In my 2013 and 2017 elections you supported me so well helping me win on both occasions. In 2021 you supported me well but with the tsunami of political support at the time for Boris Johnson and his Brexit promises, I lost my seat by seven votes!!

In 2024 working closely with our MP Ben Maguire on his election victory in the villages within my old ward I met so many of you who hoped I might return in May. It was that encouragement, especially from Lanivet, that got me to stand. At the election count things began to show early that I was heading for success. All areas gave me winning returns but the forms that came from the Lanivet/Nanstallon black metal box brought tears to my eyes as they piled up in my trays. The people of the parish of Lanivet had given me tremendous support. I sincerely thank you from the bottom of my heart. Now I will ensure I do not let you down.

Lanivet Parish Council

VE Day – 80th Anniversary

Whilst the Council did not arrange formal celebrations many celebrated this event in their own way. Bodmin held events that many were able to attend.

Local Elections for Lanivet Parish Council

Ten of our original councillors were re-appointed without challenge. Two others were unable to complete the copious forms in time so have applied to be co-opted. This is a much easier way to apply to sit on the council and I am pleased two others have likewise applied to be co-opted. Appointments will be made on the 15 May when the council meets in Nanstallon.

Cornwall Councillors

We say to Chris Batters “welcome back” as we say “adieu” to Jenny Cruse and thank her for her support over the last 4 years. In my time as Chairman we have been blessed with Cornwall Councillors who do their best to be active in the community and try to help us when it comes to needing support from the unitary authority.

New Building for Under 5s in Lanivet

It is encouraging to see the continuing progress of the new building.

Suffice to say that Jessica and her team continue to explore every avenue for further funding. If you feel you are able to help please contact the parish clerk.

Lanivet Car Park

We continue to work with Cornwall Legal Services to secure ownership of the Lanivet Green and car park.

Parish Budget for 2025-26

I have been asked to summarise the reasons for the £22,500 (36.9%) increase in the Lanivet precept. Firstly, as at 31st March 2025 the total funds stood at just over £48,000 which is lower than two years ago yet our costs continue to increase each year. Secondly, in the last 3 years we have committed some £100,000 to local projects, often making up for what Cornwall Council has failed to do. In addition, we are facing the challenge of finding £150,000 to replace all the play equipment on the Lanivet Green and create a permeable base so that children don't play in mud. We will achieve this by building up our reserves. We also want to help maintain the facilities we have supported in such a way that price does not deter the very people who need them most. We are also having to maintain more of the local pathways as Cornwall Council reduces its support. We will need to continually review our reserves to ensure that we are able to maintain the whole estate for you and following generations and not allow the parish to deteriorate beyond repair.

Lanivet Methodist Church News

Easter Sunday, and Christ's resurrection was celebrated on 20th April, and 40 days later, 29th May marked Ascension Day when Christ ascended into heaven. Pentecost or Whit Sunday is commemorated 50 days after Easter, this year on 8th June (the 7th Sunday after Easter). This marks the coming of the Holy Spirit on the apostles, and in many ways, the birth of the church as on that first Pentecost about 3,000 believers were baptised!!

Apparently, the name 'Whit Sunday' is probably derived from White Sunday, and so named after the ancient custom of wearing white at baptism. That same Holy Spirit is with and within each believer; guiding, teaching and empowering and so we continue to seek to reach out with God's love, at our regular weekly 11am worship services and community events.

POP UP LUNCH DATES are 14th June (NB not 7th due to Royal Cornwall Show), and then 5th July, both on a Saturday 12-2pm.

COMMUNITY LITTER PICK will be on 7th June, meeting at 10am in the Village car park.

MEN'S BREAKFAST is on Saturday 19th July, 8.30am start.

We have a special event, a Ukulele Extravaganza on Saturday 28th June at 7pm. Look out for the posters with details of this fun event. There will be refreshments afterwards and donations will go towards the chapel funds, as we look to replace the main chapel doors and the front windows of the school/community room.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO WELCOMING YOU TO ANY OR ALL OF THE ABOVE.

I finish with the sad news of the death of a much loved church member, Percy Coad on Thursday, 1st May. Percy had been struggling with angina and was admitted to Treliske Hospital on 29th April, after suffering a possible heart attack. Incredible to think that he and Jean were at our Sunday service just days before and despite being in his 90's he remained very determined to keep going!! Many people will know Percy and Jean and their lives will have been positively impacted by the kindness and hospitality they willingly offered. It is due to Percy and Jean (near neighbours) that Steve and myself started to attend Lanivet Methodist Church back in 2002 after we moved to Cornwall.

Our faith in Jesus gives the sure hope that Percy will rest in peace and rise in glory. We know that death is not the end.

PLEASE SHOP AROUND FOR DOMESTIC OIL - A CAUTIONARY TALE

On 13th April, I needed to buy heating oil for the home.

I set about getting quotes for 1,000 litres and was astonished at the difference in the prices that I was quoted. Once you take into account the VAT, and in Boiler Juice's case an admin/delivery fee, I was offered the following quotes :-

Watson Fuels	£543.79
Mitchell & Weber	£619.40
Boiler Juice	£625.19
Opie Oils	£692.48

A difference of just under £150 for the same product !!!

I must mention this was just after our 'friend' Donald Trump caused absolute chaos in the financial and energy markets by introducing tariffs everywhere and I might just have got lucky, but this was a huge difference and every time I have ordered oil previously, the prices have varied slightly between providers.

I am NOT saying Watson Fuels will always be the cheapest, what I AM saying is please remember not to accept the first quote. Even if you want to use your regular provider, that's fine, but please check the price elsewhere and see if they can price match or even beat it. In the current climate, every penny counts !

FOND FAREWELL FROM JENNY CRUSE

Firstly, I would like to thank all those people who sent messages and emails thanking me for my hard work over the last four years. It has been a most interesting and rewarding time in my life. I have learnt a great deal and enjoyed the successes and shouldered the frustrations that come quite often in this role. My inspiration for becoming a Councillor was to do my best to conserve our countryside, wildlife and village way of life, all of which I see as under ever increasing threat from the Governments latest planning bill which stands to wreak havoc on nature. I have managed to keep the destruction of Halgavor Moor in abeyance for the last four years, and I am relieved to know that both your MP and new Ward Member have pledged to support the conservation of this important wetland and wildlife area. I look forward to spending more time in my garden and also working with the Campaign for the Protection of Rural England, the Bodmin Dark Skies and possibly some Parishes. Time to read and enjoy long country walks will be top of my list and an opportunity to join in more local groups and activities. I think it will be the wins that made a real difference to peoples' lives that I will remember. Like getting a lovely lady and her family moved to another house as she was surrounded by ASB and drug users. Particularly in Lanivet during poll day a resident with severe mobility issues reminded me of the removal of the telegraph pole that had caused him so much trouble in his daily life. 'I don't forget what you did for me, I don't forget' and in that sentence it made me realise that it had all been worth it.

I wish you all a very happy summer in Gods own Country. You know that I am always open to a chat and to help in any way I now can.

Best wishes
